Certification of Documents:

Where documents are to be certified as true copies, certifications need be made by embassy officials, legal or accountancy professionals, entities/persons undertaking a relevant financial business or equivalent activities in reputable jurisdictions, or by any other person who is empowered to certify documents within the customer's jurisdiction.

The certifier must make a written statement in the English language confirming that the document is a true copy of the original document and that he/she has seen and verified the original document. Furthermore, the certified true copy must be dated and must include the full name, designation and contact details of the certifier.

Should the certification be on a separate page to the original document, the certifier needs to include a reference to the document being certified.

If a specific document has been downloaded from an official site (such as utility bill, bank statement), applicants can either submit proof that the document has been downloaded from the official site - i.e. screenshot showing both the document and the URL confirming the official site or alternatively, a certifier may certify that the document is a true download from the site (specify the URL), or a true copy of the original version downloaded in front of me.

certify each page individually; or

If the document is composed of more than one page the certifier can either:

• certify the top of the first page and add a statement detailing the number of pages of the original documentation seen.

Translations of Documents:

When document translations are provided to the Authority, they must be certified translations confirming that the document is a true translation from the original language, and must include the full name, signature and contact details of the translator.
